

Barbara Chilangwa

Ms. Barbara Chilangwa is a graduate of the University of Zambia and a former high school teacher. She held the top civil service position as Permanent Secretary at the Ministry of Education. As a renowned girls' education activist, she spearheaded the establishment of Zambia's Girls' Education Program. Barbara helped establish Camfed in Zambia when she was still a member of the government, and she served as a patron before taking up the position of Executive Director.