

Clare Ignatowski

Dr. Clare Ignatowski is Senior Advisor for Workforce Development and Youth in USAID's EGAT/Office of Education. She manages the EQUIP3/Youth Project which has committed over $260 million in youth programming in 33 countries since 2003. She chairs the Workforce Development component of USAID's Education Strategy and has assisted dozens of USAID Missions with assessment, strategy, and program design. An anthropologist, Dr. Ignatowski published Journey of Song: Public Life and Morality in Cameroon (2006), and more recently, the article "Framing Youth in the Politics of Foreign Assistance" (RCIE/2007). From 1990-96, she was with Public/Private Ventures, a domestic national research and development organization for employment and training of at-risk youth.