

Deepali Khanna

As Director of Youth Learning at the MasterCard Foundation, Ms. Deepali Khanna brings over 25 years of experience in the field of child and youth education and employment in Asia and Africa. Prior to joining the Foundation, she was a member of Plan International's senior management team. Ms. Khanna began her career with UNICEF in India and became a Field Director for an Indian NGO improving early childhood care and education for vulnerable children and youth in the slums of Delhi. She is a recipient of the prestigious Medal of Friendship, which was awarded to her by the President of Vietnam for her exemplary work in Vietnam. She has an M.A in Social Work from Delhi University.