

Eugene C. Roehlkepartain

Mr. Eugene C. Roehlkepartain is Executive Vice President of Search Institute, a Minneapolis-based nonprofit dedicated to discovering what kids need to succeed in their families, schools, and communities. The organization created the Developmental Assets framework and works with a wide range of NGOs and coalitions to support their youth development programming and measurement efforts. Mr. Roehlkepartain leads dozens of workshops annually and is author or editor of more than 20 books on children, youth, and families. He has been a leader at Search Institute for 20 years and is completing his Ph.D. in education at the University of Minnesota.

Teresa Wallace

Ms. Teresa Wallace develops programming guidance in collaboration with technical specialists and field staff and generates materials based on action learning, evidence and global good practice. She is the Senior Resource Materials Specialist with World Vision International.