

Kate Carpenter

Ms. Carpenter joined IYF in 2008 and serves as the Vice President for Public Sector Business Development. In her 11 years of experience in business development and project management, Kate has designed and written successful education, youth employment, health, anti-trafficking, and democracy and governance proposals. She has won funding from USAID, the U.S. Department of Labor, the U.S. Department of State, the Global Fund to Fight AIDS, Tuberculosis, and Malaria, the World Bank, the Gates Foundation, The MasterCard Foundation, and other donors. Ms. Carpenter designed and implemented systems that support efficiency and effectiveness in business development activities for Plan International USA and Creative Associates. With World Learning, she oversaw field implementation of a USAID-funded women's empowerment project in the former Yugoslavia.

Robert Duval

Mr. Robert Duval is the founder of Fondation L'Atletique D'Haiti (FLADH) (www.sportaccess.org), which was founded in 1995 to serve at-risk youth in Cite Soleil in Port au Prince, Haiti. Mr. Duval was named a CNN Hero in 2007 for his work providing free sports training, after school programs and education in one of the worst slums in Haiti. Mr. Duval was also on the Youth Development Panel for the IDB Youth Development Conference in Calgary Canada in March 2011. Mr. Duval's work has recently shifted toward job training for Haitian youth.

A CNN article and video on Mr. Duval's post-earthquake efforts:

<http://www.cnn.com/2010/WORLD/americas/02/04/cnnheroes.duval.haiti/index.html>

An introduction to a documentary on Mr. Duval's work that is currently in progress:

<http://bbs.keyhole.com/ubb/ubbthreads.php?ubb=showflat&Number=1304668>

Mohammad Almbaid

Dr. Mohammad Almbaid joined IYF in November 2010 to lead the new Youth Entrepreneurship Development Program in Palestine. He has more than fifteen years of experience designing and leading complex international projects. Dr. Almbaid holds a PhD in Urban and Regional Planning from Florida State University, a Master's in Public Affairs and a Bachelor's in Economics and Mathematics from Cornell University.

Isabelle Arnold

Ms. Isabelle Arnold is the President of Best Risks International, a US-based risk management firm (www.bestrisks.com). She is in charge of International Projects and has been in Haiti since January 2010. She is an international joint venture expert and was instrumental in forging successful partnerships between NGO, private sector actors, and FLADH as well as other clients in Haiti. Ms. Arnold is also on the Board of Directors of FLADH.

Mara Kronenfeld

Ms. Mara Kronenfeld joined the International Youth Foundation (IYF) in 2008 as a partnerships specialist for MENA programs. She has worked on projects in and related to the region for over eight years including as Manger of IYF's Egypt programs. Ms. Kronenfeld was a U.S. Fulbright grantee to Syria in 2001 and while in Syria, managed a U.S. State Department funded teacher training project and UNRWA's English Language Club for Palestinian vocational students. Ms. Kronenfeld holds a Master's in Near Eastern Studies from New York University and a Bachelor's in Anthropology from Stanford University.