

Valerie Meza De Leon

As Aflatoun's Program Manager for the Americas, Ms. Valerie Meza De Leon works with partners in different countries to implement Aflatoun's program of child social and financial education. Before Aflatoun, Ms. Meza De Leon worked for Children International, an INGO working with different programs for children and youth in Latin American countries. She is originally from Guatemala City, and has a degree in Psychology from Francisco Marroquin University and two Masters Degrees: one in Human Development and International Cooperation from the University of Florence and the other one in Management and Environment from the SAFE Institute in Rome.

Irene Mutumba

Ms. Irene Mutumba is a teacher by trade and a social and business entrepreneur whose vision is to create an entrepreneurial society in Uganda by integrating and promoting entrepreneurship skills, business and financial education in the formal and informal education system. Ms. Mutumba is the Founder and CEO of the Private Education Development Network (PEDN) in Uganda. Among other activities, PEDN implements the Aflatoun program in Uganda. Irene is also a member of the Board of Directors of Aflatoun.

Eric Glustrom

Mr. Eric Glustrom started Educate! in 2002 inspired by the potential of young refugees in Uganda to become the leaders who would bring solutions to the challenges facing Africa and beyond. Mr. Glustrom has been recognized as an Echoing Green fellow, DoSomething's Top 5 Changemakers under 25, and Educate! has received Ashoka's Changemakers Champions of Quality Education in Africa Award and Entrepreneur Magazine's 100 Companies to Watch of 2009. Mr. Glustrom has presented at numerous universities and international conferences including the Rotary International Convention and keynote at the Global Youth Leadership Conference.