

Leah Gardiner

Ms. Leah Gardiner is a Fundraising Advisor at TakingITGlobal, a non-profit organization that empowers youth to understand and act on the world's greatest challenges by leveraging the power of technology. TakingITGlobal is an online global community that inspires young people to create positive change on a local and global level, and that provides the information and connections necessary for innovative learning experiences. Ms. Leah has a wide variety of interests that have driven her to live for three years in South Korea, to complete her Yoga Teachers Training in India, and to learn American Sign Language, among other languages. Leah completed an honours BSc. in Biological Anthropology and more recently a graduate degree in Fundraising and Volunteer Management. She is inspired by cultural diversity and passionate about leadership and wellbeing.
