

Ready for Entrepreneurship Programming? Ways to Tell

Thursday, September 16, 2010

8:00-8:45am

Facilitator: Ms. Mary Nell Wegner, Director, Girls' Entrepreneurship Trust, EMpower Foundation (USA)

Join the EMpower Foundation for an interactive dialogue on the key considerations involved in deciding whether an organization is ready to start entrepreneurship programming for young, at-risk women. If an organization is interested, but not ready, this session will help them to think about ways to prepare. If an organization realizes that entrepreneurship programming is not the best fit, this session will describe other possible alternatives. Participants will leave with a "readiness checklist" they can use as a tool to help their organization decide whether entrepreneurship programming is a good fit.

Capacity limited to first 70 participants.
