

Nawfal Fassi-Fihri

Mr. Nawfal Fassi-Fihri is the Chief Executive Officer of EFE-Maroc. He has extensive experience in aspects of project management including marketing, financial analysis, and project development. Prior to joining EFE, Mr. Fassi-Fihri worked as a real estate developer, managing three construction projects in Casablanca. He also served as Director in organizations such as Global Loop Enterprises, Inc. of Houston, Texas, and Buro Zone SARL in Casablanca. Mr. Fassi-Fihri received his business degree from Drexel University.

Branka Minić

Ms. Branka Minid is ManpowerGroup's Director of Global Corporate Affairs. She develops and manages strategic partnerships and programs with members of all sectors in both developed and developing markets. Her work focuses on creating the bridge to employment for disadvantaged groups, such as youth, refugees, and survivors of human trafficking. Ms. Minid has led the design and implementation of various initiatives, such as Manpower's TechReach program, a comprehensive training and placement initiative aimed at increasing the employability and earnings of highly marginalized labor force groups while creating a new source of diverse, well-qualified job candidates for Manpower's clients. Ms. Minid serves on the Board of Directors of the Balkan Children and Youth Foundation, and is a frequent speaker at national and international conferences as an expert on workforce development and public-private partnerships.

Taleb Salhab

Mr. Talib Salhab is EFE's Vice President for Programs & Affiliate Services. In this capacity, Salhab oversees all of EFE's programs and manages the technical and capacity building support to its affiliates. Most recently, Mr. Salhab served as a program Director at the Rockefeller Brothers Fund (RBF), Salhab directed a national network of community based organizations, with one of the focal points being empowering marginalized and vulnerable youth. Salhab holds Master of Arts in International Affairs and a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science.