

Samuel González Guzmán

Mr. Samuel González Guzmán is the Founder and President of Fundacion É, a non-governmental organization in Mexico that develops the entrepreneurial capacity of both youth and adults. Fundacion É believes it is important that youth and adults are equipped with feasible business ideas within the framework of sustainable development. Over the past eleven years, Fundacion É has worked with universities, governments, international agencies, companies, non-profit organizations, business organizations, and potential and actual entrepreneurs. The core mission of Fundacion É is to fight unemployment through cutting-edge educational programs and models. Mr. Gonzalez also serves as the Latin America and the Caribbean regional representative and Mexico Country Coordinator for the Youth Employment Summit Campaign.
